Ogden Cockcroft to Jane Cockcroft et al:

The last will and testament of Ogden Cockcroft. South Carolina

In the name of God, I Ogden Cockcroft being in a low state of health but in sound mind and sumary calling to mind that it is appointed for all mento die and that after that to come to Judgement do ordain this my last will and testament. First of all I recommend my soul to God that gave it nothing doubting but that my body and soul shall again be united at the glorious morning of the resurrection and my body—to the dust from whince it was taken to be buried in a christian like manner and as for the estate that the Lord has been pleased to help one within this life. First of all I desire that my just debts be paid and the residue to be disposed of as follows.

First, I give unto my beloved wife ~~the~~ the following property viz, a negro woman named Hannah, one horse, one white colored cow and calf and my stock of pigs that is three burrows and breeding sow and ten shouts and the household and kitchen furniture and crop that is now on hand. Also, i desire that she have the use of the plantation on which I live during her natural life and then for my three grand sons namely William Cockcroft, John Cockcroft and David Cockcroft, heirs of my son John Cockcroft. Also, a negro woman named ~~the~~ during her natural life and then to ~~the~~

Secondly, in lieu of the above named land, I give to my son William Cockcroft a tract of land laying on under Woods branch of creek water of Saluda River containing one hundred and thirty two acres and all the rest of my moneys to be collected without just and equally divided between my son William Cockcroft and the lawful heirs of my son John Cockcroft.

I do hereby ordain, constitute and appoint my son William Cockcroft and Jacob Green my executors of this my last will and testament and hereby make — all other wills and ordain this my last will and testament in witness whereof I have hereunto set

Notes for JOHN STILL, SR.:

This family was compiled by Thelma Faye Cain Prince, copyright 1997. My E-Mail address is princef@monmouth.com.

More about the children of John Still who died Edgefield Co. S.C. Their names come from his will written in Edgefield Co. on the 26th day of September 1797 and probated at the October court 1797; found in Will Bk A:131-133.

1. David Still m. Catherine _____. From Leonardo Andrea Collection, ~~Still & Cockroft data~~
2. Dorcas Still m. Michael DeLoach, Jr. From above source and from The DeLoach family\ given in one of John Bennett Boddie's books]
3. Hannah m. _____ Flanigan name as given in her father's will]
4. John Still, Jr. m. Esther ( ? ). Probably was a Revolutionary Soldier referred to in Pierce's Register #91316, found in the National Archives. John Still was a Sergt. 4th Co. of the North Carolina Regt., Hadley's Co., 4th Continental Line. He enlisted 1 August 1782 for 14-18 months.
5. Joseph Still m. Elizabeth Bean, daughter of Christianna and Alexander Bean of Edgefield Co.
6. ~~Mary Still m. John Cockroft. John has an estate settlement in 1814, and Mary in 1820 in Edgefield Co. They were members of Dry Creek Baptist Church. Leonardo Andrea Collection, South Carolina Library, Columbia, S.C.]~~
7. Sarah Still m. Jacob B. Youngblood name from descendants and the will.]
9. The Rev. Benjamin Still (Baptist) m Jane, daughter of James Martin This statement from\ the Andrea papers. They are my ancestors. He is the son of John and Jane Still, but I've yet to prove who her father was. His family page is in this compilation]
10. Letty Still m John Cogburn, Jr. From Andrea file, and "The Cogburn Family" found in D.A.\ Tompkins Memorial Library, Edgefield, S.C]
11. Jolly James Still, born abt 1786 and died 15 November 1849, buried in the Still-Bean cemetery, Edgefield with a marked tombstone. He married Isabella Bean, b. 1786 and she died 1 April 1872, buried there with a marked tombstone. Isabella was a daughter of Alexander and Christianna Bean.

On page 474 of Citizens and Immigrants-South Carolina abstracted by Mary Bondurant Warren is found this record:

SAMUEL MCJENKINS, 150 acres Berkley County in the fork between Broad and Saludy Rivers on a small branch of Tybee river known by the name of Tinkers Creek, bounded NE on JOSEPH JOLLY. Survey certified 4 December 1768. EDWARD MUSGROVE, D.S. For the memorialist, John ( -I-) Still, his mark. This is John Still of the 1797 will because he used the same mark. A S.C. Land Memorial is a written account of how a person came by the land he is paying taxes on. The accounting usually begins with the original land owner, stating a chain of titles of how he or she came by this land, such as conveyances or heirship. [Memorials Vol 9, p. 474, Colonial Plats, Vol 10,

ROYAL LAND GRANTS TO A JOHN STILL IN SOUTH CAROLINA;

1) A grant was made to JOHN STILL (Signed with his mark, I) 13 July 1762 of 100 acres situated in Craven County on the SW side of PeeDee River, bounded northward on Daniel Monahan's land and vacant land, westward on vacant land, south by Joshua Edwards and William Hughes' lands, eastward on PeeDee River Vol.10:262 for grant; Vol. 7:245 of Colonial Plats; Vol.14: 239, memorials, all found in South Carolina Archives. This compiler believes this to be John Still of the 1797 Edgefield Co. S.C. will,\ because he signed the grant document with the same mark he used on his will, I.

2 A grant was made to JOHN STILL 12 Jan. 1769 of 100 acs in Craven Co. on a small branch called Tinkers Creek on the South side of Broad River bounded on all sides by vacant land Vol 18:177; Colonial plats Vol. 9:277; Memorials Vol:8:422.\

3] A grant was made to JOHN STILL 15 March 1771 of 100 acres in Craven County on a branch of Fair Forest bounded on all sides by vacant land. Vol 23: 277; Colonial Plats Vol 21:131].\

These last two grants weren't signed with our John Still's mark. I'm not sure if Tinkers Creek is the same one mentioned in Samuel McJenkins grant, or if they are two different places. A search should be made for the grants to Joseph Jolly.

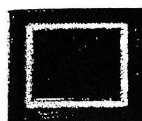

Children of JANE JOLLY and JOHN STILL are:

- i. DAVID<sup>3</sup> STILL, m. CATHERINE ( ?).
- ii. DORCAS STILL, m. MICHAEL DeLOACH, JR..
- iii. HANNAH STILL, m. ( ? ) FLANIGAN.

Barbara,

You did make a fine. This is documentation that William and John who emigrated to Leake Co., MS, are brothers and the sons of John and Mary Still Cockroft.

Do you have access to the 1850 and/or 1860 Census of Leake Co.? If you do check for the name of William's oldest son. If you do not have access I will order a microfilm from the LDS Family Center a mile up the street from me.

Listed in the 1800 and 1810 Census of Edgefield Co., SC, were three Cockroft's, William, John and Odgen, I assume they are brothers. William Still Cockroft in 1870 census states that his father was born in England.

Where did you find this info?

Thanks,

James

Hi Barbara,

Hal Martin forwarded your messages to us concerning the Cockroft family. My wife, Natalie Cockroft, in the grand-daughter of Stansul Leonidas Cockroft. She and I have been researching the family for a number of years and we provided Hal with his info.

I believe [REDACTED] is an older brother to William Still Cockroft. Their parents may be John and Mary Still Cockroft. The Home Page of Thelma Prince, Family Tree Maker Website, lists several of their children, including John, Jr., but omits William Still. This is the story of my research, not much help from other sources.

I have this from a CD:

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

We have been in contact by email and phone with a descendant of

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED], son of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], [REDACTED] St.,
Ridgeland, MS, 39157, (601) 836-6276.

Do you have genealogy program if so, which one?

Keep in touch,

age of 16.

Ogdain Cockroft, 430a on Stephens Creek of Edgefield County in 96 Dist.

4 June 1787...No head rights after the Revolution.

Satcher.....14 Dec. 1808 "I William Mazo do hereby assign all my rights in this tract of 49a on Mine Creek to Ogden Cockroft / Wit. John Lark (Wondered if Clark)

5 OGDEN COCKROFT a Memorial Tax return in Book 12 pg. 309 for 300a in Colleton County on a small branch of Little Saluda River called Pen Creek all all sides vacant lands....certified 11 Jan. 1773, surveyed by John Caldwell & granted to Ogden Cockroft 6 Feb. 1773.....John Caldwell delivered the said grant to Benjamin Bell into his hands for Mr. Cockroft...Wm. Bell made the tax returns in Charleston 19 May 1774 for Ogden Cockroft.

5a It seems that Ogden Cockroft may not have moved on to this land when the grant was made to him...Note the plat and grant were delivered to Benjamin Bell who evidently had it in May in 1774 for he made the tax return on the land.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Edgefield Co. has excellent EQUITY COURT records, as well as those of probate. Examine both of these. Had there been a minor heir to an intestate estate, the adult heirs often resorted to an equity action to allow the estate to be divided before the child came of age.

Dear Sherry,

Great to hear from you! No one else in all the earth is searching for Cochroft or Cockerorts except you and me!!

I can not tell you where Artillisa fits into the family but she does. First, Cochroft is a name one does not encounter to often; hence, its possessor have some degree of kinship somehow at sometime. Secondly, she also shares the same geographical location as my Cochrofts. I find that on 5 Dec 1820 Norman M. McLeod signed the first codicil of the will of Ulric Tobler, of Savannah, Georgia, recorded in Will Book C 1818- 1836 in Edgefield county, South Carolina page 367 (dated 26 Jan 1815). (Ulric Tobler in Edgefield county as well.) Edgefield county is the exact location of my line. Thirdly, she shares the name and place during the same time period.

None of this will convict her but it does propose a preponderance of evidence that she is of this same family.

I checked my South Carolina marriage books for a marriage for her but didn't find it which is not surprising as South Carolina did not require license or recording of marriages until the 20th century. Did not find her in the will books either. Edgefield was in the 96 District of South Carolina so you may want to check records of both places. Edgefield was just across the Savannah river from Georgia and many of its inhabitants are found in Georgia records. Many from Edgefield migrated through Troup and Harris counties, Georgia into Chambers, Russell and Lee counties, Alabama, thence farther South into Alabama or west into Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas. I will watch for them in Alabama records ( & others ) when I'm researching. There are many Alabama residents who disappear in the 1860 and 1870 censuses. I'm at a loss to explain and it is so-o-o-o frustrating!! One wants to blame the War but I don't think that's the reason. Those censuses were taken and others were included. I think they were either moving around and missed or were to isolated or ornery for the enumerator to bother with.

I would be delighted to collaborate our efforts to trace the Cochrofts and it does appear we are of the same line. ( Cochroft, Cachroft, Cockerort,etc.)

Isn't Moss Point on the Gulf? My mother's family are from Harrison,Stone, Pearl River and Hancock counties. We visit frequently. I attend our Breland Reunion every October.

Good Luck and thanks for writing,

Leila

For the Quill:

Descendants of John (-I-) Still

When I was in South Carolina in February of 1997 I was determined to prove that John Still's wife was Jane Jolly. From John Still's will we know that his wife was Jane. Jane who? One bit of information suggested that her name might be Jolly.

On page 474 of Citizens and Immigrants-South Carolina abstracted by Mary Bondurant Warren is found this record:

SAMUEL MCJENKINS, 150 acres Berkley County in the fork between Broad and Saludy Rivers on a small branch of Tybe (Tiger) River known by the name of Tinkers Creek, bounded NE on JOSEPH JOLLY. Survey certified 4 December 1768 EDWARD MUSGRAVE, D.S.

For the memorialist, John (-I-) Still, his mark.

he enlisted during 1775 and was on the Snow Campaign.

Another clue was that John and Jane Still named a son Jolly James Still who married Isabella Bean. There was a Jolly James Still II who married Vary Murrell and Jolly James Still III, who married Elizabeth Zelene (Bettie) Cogburn. The latter were the grandparents of my husband.

So, I went to the South Carolina Archives and made a list of every Joseph Jolly in the state. I pulled the microfilm and started reading. I struck out on the first five, but on the sixth microfilm I found what I was looking for.

The will of Joseph Jolly of Union County was recorded in Will Book No. 1, Page 66, Box 1, Pkg. 20; recorded March 22, 1790; Ben Haile, D.C. In this will we read:

"Received of Thomas Brandon in behalf of his self and Joseph Hughes as administrators to the estate of Joseph Jolly & Benjamin Jolly desist in full of my demands as one of their heirs in behalf of my self & wife and heirs the sum of twenty pound Sterlin being my full demand both in law and equity for my self and heirs fully and forever aquitting all clame right (titel?) & demand for Ever as witness my hand this 15th fabruary 1791.
